

Mr Ragnar Siil

Under-Secretary for Fine Arts, Estonian Ministry of Culture
Chairman, European Union expert group on cultural and creative Industries

Ragnar Siil has been working at the Estonian Ministry of Culture since 2005 and is currently Undersecretary responsible for fine arts. Previously he was head of the development department responsible for strategic planning and creative industries policy. Ragnar is representing Estonia in the European Union's expert group on cultural and creative Industries and the Steering Group of Northern Dimension Partnership for Culture. He was also heading Estonian committee of UNESCO convention on diversity of cultural expressions.